

INFINITE OPPORTUNITIES | GERMANY + INDIA 2011-2012

APPLICATION FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE PROJECT “GERMANY AND INDIA 2011 - 2012: INFINITE OPPORTUNITIES”

PREAMBLE

The project “Germany and India 2011 – 2012: Infinite Opportunities” is initiated by the German Federal Foreign Office, the Asia-Pacific Committee of German Business, the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research and the Goethe-Institut. The goal of all activities is to establish a positive image of Germany in India with a focus on innovation and future developments. The project will give new impulses for Indo-German relations. Germany will present itself as an innovative and creative partner for India, cooperating in finding solutions to the challenges of urbanisation under the headline of “Stadträume – CitySpaces”.

Companies, regional entities (states, cities, municipalities) and public institutions have the opportunity to join the project with own events. Accepted participations will be labelled with the logo of the project and included in the programme calendar.

Each application needs to be approved by the project initiators mentioned above. Once a participation in the project is approved, the applicant will receive an Agreement for Project Participants and printable masters of the logo, including guidelines for its proper use. The usage of the logo is limited to the event itself.

LOGO

The logo should be placed in a prominent position according to the guidelines. In case of using other logos, e.g. of partner companies and sponsors etc., those logos shall be placed separately from the project's logo. The project's logo shall be positioned prominently and therefore stand out from the other logos. Any use of the logo shall be agreed upon in advance with the Project Management (Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan New Delhi).

We hereby apply for participation in the event series "Germany and India 2011-2012– Infinite Opportunities".
